(a) whether it is a fact that Manisana Wage Board report for the new newspaper industry has been delayed, inordinately : and

(b) whether his Ministry would indicate a time frame for submitting the report ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI MUNI LALL): (a) and (b) The Government constituted two Wage Boards for Working Journalists and Non-journalist newspaper and new-agency employees on 2-9-94 under the common Chairmanship of Justice Rajkumar Manisana Singh for fixing and revising the rates of wases of newspaper and news-agency employees. No time frame was fixed for submission of the report.

The Wage Board submitted tentative proposals to the Government on 21-12-99 which were published in the official Gazette on 30-12-99 inviting comments from the concerned parties and also to seek oral hearing, if desired, within 6 weeks. In response, 72 parties submitted comments and as many as 42 parties requested for oral hearing. Oral hearings on comments/objections in respect of tentative proposals were completed in three rounds i.e. February, 22—25, 2000, March 14—17, 2000 and March 27—31, 2000. Thereafter, the first meeting of the Wage Boards was held during 17th to 20th April, 2000 to finalise the report. The next meeting of the Wage Board has been fixed at Mumbai on 9-5-2000.

Meanwhile, the Indian Newspaper Society has filed a Writ Petition in Delhi High Court against tentative proposals. The matter is listed for hearing on 9-5-2000. The completion of the proceedings of the Wage Board will, thus, depend on the outcome of the Writ Petition. Under these circumstances, the Wage Boards have sought some more time to submit the final report.
